

SLOW PITCH SOFTBALL STRIKE

Remember that the position of a batter in the batter's box makes no difference. The plate and batter's natural stance at the plate are the controlling factors.

A pitched ball that touches home plate and is not struck at is always a ball.